

Spaghettizange

Description

The classic spaghetti tongs.

The spaghetti tongs “Made in Germany” impress with their solid workmanship, functional design, and well-thought-out details. Made of robust stainless steel, they sit comfortably in the hand and allow effortless portioning and serving of pasta.

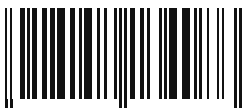

A practical notch on the handle ensures that the tongs do not slip into the pot or pan – for clean and comfortable work in the kitchen. Ideal for everyone who values durability, quality, and functionality.

These beautiful spaghetti tongs are a Solingen classic that we saved from disappearing by purchasing the manufacturing tool when the former manufacturer retired.

Stainless steel, dishwasher-safe and still made in Germany.
